Petitioner,

v.

VIZIO, INC.,

Respondent.

Decision on Request for Extension of
Time under 37 C.F.R. § 2.145(e)

Cancellation No. 92070572

MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

On March 17, 2022, Petitioner Sony Mobile Communications Inc. (“Petitioner”) filed a request, with Respondent’s consent, for an extension of time of thirty (30) days within which to file a notice of appeal or commence a civil action seeking review of the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board’s July 20, 2021, final decision in this case. This is Petitioner’s seventh such consented request. The Director granted Petitioner’s previous requests for 30-day extensions on September 16, 2021, October 20, 2021, November 18, 2021, December 27, 2021, January 19, 2022, and February 22, 2022. The last order extended the deadline to March 21, 2022. Petitioner, again with Respondent’s consent, now seeks “a further 30-day extension of the deadline,” through and including April 20, 2022. The request is GRANTED for the reasons set forth below.

Under 37 C.F.R. § 2.145(e)(1)(i), the Director, for good cause, may extend the time to commence judicial review, under 15 U.S.C. § 1071, of a Board decision if the request is made in writing before the period for commencing judicial review expires. Because the Petitioner filed this seventh request before the expiration of the March 21, 2022, deadline established by the Director's February 22, 2022, order, it is timely and will be considered under the good cause standard.

Petitioner's requests have all stated that the parties are engaged in good-faith settlement discussions following the issuance of the TTAB's decision and need additional time for continued discussions that may resolve this matter without further litigation. And, as noted above, Petitioner indicates that Respondent, VIZIO, Inc., has consented to this request. Because there had been multiple prior requests, the Director's February 22 order directed that any future requests for extensions of time to seek judicial review of the Board's decision must provide a more particularized statement about the status of the parties' settlement discussions to evaluate whether good cause for the further extension exists. Petitioner's March 16 request provided such information.

Based on these representations, there is good cause for the requested thirty (30) day extension of time. Accordingly, the request is GRANTED for an additional thirty (30) days, through and including April 20, 2022, within which to seek judicial review. The Director maintains the requirement that any future requests in this matter must provide information about the steps the parties took to advance settlement discussions during the then-existing extension period and the current status of those discussions.
